PROSPECTUS OF THE AMERICAN PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL AND MISCELLANY.

IT is a remarkable fact, that while the converts to the belief that Phrenology is true, have, within a few years, most astonishingly multiplied, there does not exist on the American continent a single periodical whose object is to advocate its truths, repel the attacks made upon it, or answer the enquiries which even candid persons are disposed to make concerning it. And this is the more surprising since the materials already existing and daily augmenting, with which to enrich such a publication, are almost inexhaustible.

The science of medicine has its appropriate media through which to present to the profession and to students all the new facts which occur, and all the new theories which are advocated in the various institutions of various medical science throughout the world; and it is proper that it should be so. The same is true of the other leading professions, of law, and of divinity. But, notwithstanding the important bearings which Phrenology has upon these sciences, there is no publication through which the appropriate channel, those bearings may be pointed out. It is true that some newspapers, and also one or two works of a less ephemeral character, do occasionally admit an article in favor of phrenology; but these do not meet the present necessity. A periodical which is avowedly phrenological—one, whose pages shall constitute a permanent depository of facts, and which shall be open for the expression of opinions and the record of principles connected with those facts, is now needed; and a strong feeling of this necessity, together with a belief that such a work is extensively demanded, and will meet with encouragement and support, has induced the publisher to present a prospectus of "The American Phrenological Journal and Miscellany."

The object of this work will be to preserve from oblivion the most interesting of the very numerous facts, confirmatory and illustrative of the truth of phrenology;—to show the true bearings of this science on education, (physical, intellectual and moral); on the Medical Treatment of the Insane; on Jurisprudence; on Theology; and on Mental and Moral Philosophy. On all these subjects there is encouragement to hope for contributions from several able pens: while the resources of the editor himself will not, it is hoped, be found inconsiderable.

The religious character of the work will be decidedly evangelical: for one prominent object in giving it existence is, to wrest phrenology out of the hands of those, who, in ignorance of its true nature and tendencies, suppose that they find in it an instrument by which to subvert the truths of revealed religion, and loosen the bonds of human accountability, and moral obligation. A frequent subject of discussion in our pages will therefore be, The Harmony between the truths of Revelation and those of Phrenology. And on the subject of the religious bearings of our science, we respectfully solicit the enquiries and objections, not of cavillers, but of the truly candid, and the conscientiously fearful. Such correspondents we shall always welcome to our pages, and they will always be treated with kindness; as, also, will honest and respectful objectors to Phrenology. But the captious and cavillers will ensure to themselves our silent contempt; and the ignorant pretender, who seeks to overthrow a science which he will not be at the pains to investigate, may expect a merited rebuke.

As our object is the establishment of Truth, we solicit the communication of facts which are supposed to militate against Phrenology; and we pledge ourselves to publish them, in all cases in which we have satisfactory vouchers for their genuineness; and in which all the facts in the several cases are furnished to us. But as we must form our own judgment of the cerebral development in all cases on which we express our opinions, it is obvious that we cannot receive, in these instances, the opinions of non-phrenological or anti-phrenological writers, as to the degree in which the several organs are developed;—we must, in every such case, see the head or skull, or a cast of it, properly certified to be true to nature.

Original Essays on Phrenological subjects will form part of the Journal; as also, Reviews of Phrenological and Anti-Phrenological works: nor shall we fail to present to our readers such matters of interest and importance as may be found in foreign Phrenological works of standard excellence, and which are not generally accessible to the American public. Our facts we pledge ourselves shall be bona-fide such; and, as often as practicable, we shall accompany our descriptions with illustrative cuts: indeed, we intend and expect that scarcely a number will be issued without two or more of such cuts.

To encourage Phrenologists of talent (and especially professional men who are Phrenologists), to enrich the work with their contributions, we offer for accepted matter, as liberal a compensation per printed page, as is usually afforded by the very first periodicals in our country; but the editor does not promise to endorse all which his correspondents may communicate; nor all which he may admit into the work. To error, if serious, and especially if it affect the interests of morality and religion, he claims the right of correction, in the form of reply, or of the objectionable matter; and communications for which compensation is expected, must be so prepared as to be fit for the public eye. In conclusion, we may be allowed to say, that the pecuniary value of each number will depend much on the extent to which the work is patronized. It is not with the desire or expectation of gain that it is offered to the community, but from moral considerations: from a desire to know and promulgate truth. Hence should a large subscription list be obtained, a considerable proportion of the profits will be devoted to the enlargement and improvement of the work, without an increase of expense to the subscribers. More frequent illustrations and embellishments will, in that case, be inserted, and the attractions of the work be thus multiplied.

TERMS.

1. The American Phrenological Journal and Miscellany will be issued monthly, commencing on the 24th of October.
2. Each number will contain at least 32 octavo pages, making a volume of not less than 384 pages; corresponding in point of mechanical execution with the best periodicals of the day.
3. The work will be furnished to subscribers at $2 per annum for a single copy; $5 (current in Philadelphia or New York) for three copies, or $10 (current as above) for seven copies sent to one address. To Clergymen and Theological Students, single copies will be furnished at $1.50 per annum; and to companies of eight or more of such, it will be reduced to $1.25 per copy, if sent to one address, and the subscription forwarded to the publishers free of expense.
4. N. B.—As funds are already deposited for sustaining the work one year, subscribers will incur no risk of loss by paying in advance; and for the same reason subscriptions will be invariably required IN ADVANCE.
5. Money sent by mail, if enclosed in the presence of the post master, will be at the risk of the publisher; but postage must, in every case, be paid.
6. Subscriptions and letters of business, may be addressed to the publisher, ADAM WALLACE, 46 Carpenter street, Philadelphia, and communications for the work to the Editor of the American Phrenological Journal, care of A. Wallis.
7. Postmasters throughout the country will please act as agents for this Journal.

PROSPECTUS OF THE MISSISSIPPI JUSTICE, AND CONSTABLE'S GUIDE.

THE scarcity of the Revised Code and sheet acts of the Legislature, and the difficulty with which the Justices and Constables of this State supply themselves, and the great want of such a work, as a Justice of the Peace on my own part, has induced me to offer to the Justices and Constables of this State a digest of all the Laws in force, in relation to their duties, &c., together with a complete set of forms of Deeds, Wills, Bonds, Acknowledgments of Dower, and other instruments.
To place such a work in the hands of our Justices and Constables would save much trouble and time to the officers for whom the work is intended. As the law now stands, it is with the utmost difficulty to be ascertained whether a written law is in force or not, which often misleads us.
The work will be published in one Duodecimo volume, law binding, comprising from two hundred and fifty to three hundred pages, with a digested index of the contents, giving a condensed statement of all it contains. The work will be ready for delivery the 1st of March, 1839.
Terms made known on delivery.
